Re: Proposed Regulation Changes

Dear Ms. Bogert:

On April 5, 2007, I wrote to you concerning the Board's proposed regulation changes as announced on or about February 19, 2007. Apparently, due to editing errors for which I accept responsibility, my letter is viewed by some as ambiguous with respect to our position concerning the proposed regulations.

It was the intent of my letter to adopt the points made by the SEIU State Council in opposition to the proposed regulations, for the various reasons set forth in that letter.

It was our intent, as well, to express the view that in the event the Board determined to reject those comments and observations, and proceed with these proposed regulations to note other problems that we saw with the regulations in their present form. It was not our intent, in any fashion, to indicate that we supported the regulations.

I apologize for any confusion that my earlier letter may have caused, and appreciate the opportunity to (hopefully) clarify our earlier letter.

Sincerely,

Vincent A. Harrington, Jr.
